

PARTIAL FUSION NOW PROBABLE

Combination Likely on Council
Ticket in First and Second Precincts.

BRANSFORD TALKS OUT

SAYS HE WON'T LET SPOILSMEN
CONTROL HIM.

Yesterday's developments pointed almost certainly to a combination between the Democrats and the Republicans on the councilmanic tickets in the First and Second, and perhaps in the Fifth precinct. The tickets in the Third and Fourth will remain as they are unless the Republicans should decide to withdraw both of their candidates in the wards named and endorse the Democratic nominees. In neither will the Democrats make any concessions whatever.

The tickets in the First and Second precincts will be: First—Oliver T. Hodgson, a Democrat, long term; J. D. Murdoch, Republican, short term. This means the withdrawal of Herbert L. Penrose, Democrat, and Andrew Smith, Jr., Republican.

Second—J. W. Currie, Republican, long term; George C. Smith, Democrat, short term. Here the withdrawals will be George Burbridge, Democrat, and G. E. Davey, Republican, long term. No other combinations are likely but one in the Fifth is possible, with William R. Wallace for the long term and Henry Cohn for the short term, both without any Samuel Taylor, Democrat, and John A. Hayes, Republican.

It may be stated with the utmost certainty that the plan of the Republicans for a fusion in the Fourth will come to naught. It has been freely stated that James Maxwell, nominated on the Democratic ticket for the short term in this ward, would retire in favor of a Republican. Mr. Maxwell will do nothing of the kind.

"My friends went into the convention in good faith and nominated me. I accepted the nomination in good faith, and I am going to make a fight for the office. In my judgment both Mr. Hall and myself will be elected. I certainly will not retire in order to make room on a fusion or any other ticket for a Republican."

L. E. Hall, the Democratic nominee for the long term in council, said that he reached last night, but it was said for him that he feels as Mr. Maxwell feels. He is in the highest of spirits and he will stay on the Democratic ticket.

There was never any serious talk of fusion in the Third. In previous city elections the Democrats have had pretty much their own way there and they would, it is pointed out, be more than foolish if they entered into any fusion agreement. Such a thought is, however, farthest from the minds of the Third ward Democrats.

There is a decidedly strong probability of the success of the fusion tickets in the First and Second. Both Mr. Murdoch and Mr. Currie are citizens of the highest standing, and no reasonable objections to them can be made. Mr. Murdoch, indeed, is one of the best known men in Salt Lake. He served on the board of public works in one of the Thompson Republican administrations and is a heavy taxpayer. He consented to run this year on the distinct understanding that he would be independent of any party. Mr. Currie is a seer who has been practicing his profession here for a number of years. He is well known in the city and in the county at large. Neither Mr. Murdoch nor Mr. Currie is a member of the Mormon church.

The high standing of Messrs. Murdoch and Currie is shared by Messrs. Hodgson and Smith, the Democrats in the combination. They have lived here for many years and are well known to the public.

POSITION OF BRANSFORD.

Mayor Says He Won't Let His Party
Managers Control Him.

Mayor John S. Bransford, "American" nominee to succeed himself, issued another declaration of independence yesterday afternoon. It had been reported in political circles that the Thompson Republican administration had been approached by a committee of spoilsmen and asked if he would sign an agreement, such as has been signed by Mayor Murdoch, to appoint none but good "Americans" to places in the city government. The mayor, who seemed to be feeling first rate as a result of his recent visit of inspection to eastern cities, smiled at the suggestion.

"No committee has called upon me with any such proposition," he said. And he smiled still more when he was asked if he wouldn't have done them any good if they had."

Mayor Bransford said the nomination had come to him unsought and unolicited. He was not handicapped by any pledge whatsoever to any man or to any set of men. He was absolutely his own master, and, if elected, would continue to be his own master. Discussing further the matter of appointments for purely political reasons, Mayor Bransford said: "If I find a city official doing good, faithful, conscientious work, I will not remove him. My proposal is a bitter disappointment to me. It is a bitter disappointment to me. It is a bitter disappointment to me."

"If I find a city official doing good, faithful, conscientious work, I will not remove him. My proposal is a bitter disappointment to me. It is a bitter disappointment to me. It is a bitter disappointment to me."
